

Capability Statement

Core Competencies

- Software architecture and design
- Web Development
- Microsoft .Net Technologies
- Database Design
- Oracle and SQL Server Administration
- Project Management
- Process Modeling
- Application Integration

Differentiators

The founder is an expert in our core competency fields and is actively engaged in each project.

Our owner holds an Advanced Degree in Applied Computer Science as well as a Microsoft Certified Solutions Developer Certification specializing in .Net web development.

We have over 10 years' experience managing a variety of projects within different business sectors.

Corporate Data

8(a) certification through December 2020
CAGE: 4C8D9
DUNS: 141417373
Primary NAICS: 541511, 541512,
541513, 541519

Past Performance

US Office of Personnel Management

Subcontractor to RMCI

OnBoarding Manger

Rebus Technologies personnel served as the team architect and developer for the OnBoarding Manger and Admin Portal applications that are integrated with the Staffing Human Resources application.

Defense Logistics Agency

Subcontractor to Intergraph

COPA

COPA is a logistics and procurement management application. Our team of experts supported the original COPA development, and successfully sustained, maintained and supported COPA for over 5 years.

Department of Defense – Warner Robins Air Logistics Center

Subcontractor to Intergraph

Aircraft Integrated Data Environment

Rebus Technologies was instrumental in the design, construction, implementation, and sustainment of the Aircraft Integrated Data Environment (AIDE) suite of applications. .

Management Team

Don Chambers, Founder and CEO

don.chambers@rebus technologies.com

Cell: (478)461-0032

Master's Degree – Applied Computer Science 2010

Bachelor's Degree – Computer Science 1996

Microsoft Certified Solutions Developer